

Melissa Kane graduated from Bridgewater College with a Bachelors of Science in Psychology and is working towards a Masters Degree in Early Childhood Special Education at Johns Hopkins University. Melissa is a part time Curriculum Coordinator for Project ACT where she writes and presents trainings throughout the state of Maryland. Melissa enjoys working to create an environment that promotes healthy social and emotional competency in all children.