

Sarah Walmsley- Project Act Consultant

Sarah has a bachelor's degree in Family Studies as well as a Masters of Social Work from the University of Maryland. Prior to obtaining her MSW, Sarah worked as a lead teacher for a private preschool in Rockville. There she worked with children age two through six with a wide range of developmental abilities and challenges. While working on her MSW, Sarah interned at both Montgomery County Child Welfare and the Reginald S. Lourie Center for Infants and Young Children in their Therapeutic Nursery Program. Sarah looks forward to continuing her work with young children and using her knowledge to mentor other teachers.
